ORDER

29.08.2018 - The contesting parties have appeared either as appellant(s) or as respondent(s) in one or the other appeal. As the dispute relates within the family members, before going into the merit of the appeals it is desirable to find out whether the parties agree for an amicable settlement, we adjourn the appeals with the request to the appellants and respondents, select their representatives to appear before this Appellate Tribunal on the next date to hear their views with regard to settlement. The Appellate Tribunal will not express its opinion during such process of settlement.

Post these appeals for orders on 17th September, 2018 at 2 PM in Chamber of the Chairperson.

In the meantime the parties will maintain status quo as exists today with regard to property and the directions given by the Tribunal by impugned order.
