O R D E R

16.02.2018: The question arises for consideration in this appeal is whether the appellant supplied any goods or rendered services to the responded as claimed by the respondent.

Learned counsel for the respondent is allowed time to refer the documents including agreement, if any, reached between the parties to suggest that the respondent supplied any goods or rendered services, in terms of the provisions of Section 9 of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016.

At this stage, it is relevant to state that any dispute relating to rendering of services, if raised, may be ground to reject the application under Section 9 of I&B Code.

Learned counsel for the appellant prays for and allowed to serve copy of the rejoinder to the learned counsel for the respondent in course of a day.

Post the matter on 27th February, 2018 for final disposal.
