O R D E R

04.01.2018: The appeal is fit to be dismissed on the ground that the pagination of the paper book has not been properly made. Many pages of the index are missing. The pagination in the paper book(s) of the counsel for the appellant, the counsel for respondent(s) and the Appellate Tribunal are different and not matching. However, on the request of the learned senior counsel for the appellant we allow the appellant to make necessary corrections including the index, annexures, appendices, etc. of the paper books. The counsel for the appellant may take into consideration the pagination of the paper book(s) of the Appellate Tribunal. The aforesaid permission is granted, subject to payment of a cost of Rs.50,000/- to be paid by the Appellant in favour of 'Registrar, National Company Law Appellate Tribunal' before the next date. Corrected copy of the paper book(s) be also made available to the learned counsel for the respondent(s).

Post the matter on 12th January, 2018.
