20.07.2018— Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the Tribunal had issued notice to one of the officers of the Central Government, who is not empowered to deal with the subject matter. Without notice to the competent authority of the Central Government or implementing the Central Government through the competent authority the order was passed. Subsequently when the aforesaid fact was brought to the notice of the Tribunal, the right of appellant to file objections were forfeited by the impugned order dated 27th March 2018.

Let notice be issued on respondent both in the matter of condonation of delay and the appeal. Requisite along with process fee, if not filed, be filed by Tuesday the 24th July 2018. If the Appellant provides the e-mail address of Respondent, let notice be also issued through e-mail.

Learned counsel for the appellant may also serve a copy of this order on the respondent. 'Dasti' service is permitted.

Post the case 'for orders' on 6th August 2018 before the first Bench.

On the next date, the question of condonation of delay and interim order of stay will be considered.
