05.05.2017- The case has been listed at the instance of Appellant. Counsel for the Appellant initially informed that he intends to make statement that he was not given instructions to withdraw the appeal and for that reason he wanted the Court to decide the case on merit. For the said reason the learned counsel sought permission to argue the case on merit. However, in the facts and circumstances, particularly, as we find that the Company Petition was barred by limitation. We are not inclined to modify the order dated 4th May 2017.
