09.04.2018:            Counsel for respondent no. 2 seeks time to file affidavit-in-reply. He says it is ready and he will file it today. Appellant may file rejoinder within next 10 days. Counsel for Respondent no. 3 states that he does not want to file affidavit in reply. Recorded. The appellant and registry to check if respondent no. 1 has been served, if not, service may be ensured.

2.     The appeal shall be confined only to the pleadings before the Tribunal whose order is challenged. However, the appellant may with due notice to the respondents and with leave of this Bench urge additional grounds at the time of hearing. If the appellants have already raised any additional grounds at the time of filing this appeal, the appellant shall disclose the same by next date, in writing.

3.     The parties may produce copies of petition/documents which are part of the record in Tribunal below, if and to the extent necessary to answer the grounds urged in the appeal. The appellant shall produce (unless already produced) by next date, copies of all documents referred to and relied on by the Tribunal below in the impugned order.

4. If the parties have produced or want to produce any document which was not part of the records in the Tribunal below, the parties shall make a separate application stating the reasons for not producing it in the Tribunal below, and the necessity for its production in this appeal and seek leave of this Bench for producing and considering such additional documents.

5. After the pleadings are complete, the parties will produce "Bullet points of arguments to be made" not more than 2-3 pages making reference to page numbers in paper book. The Appellants should in Bullet Points refer to page numbers of documents referred to and relied on by the Tribunal below in the impugned order. The bullet points be produced before the date of hearing.

6. List the matter on 23rd April, 2018.
