10.04.2018 - The respondents may, if they want, file brief affidavit in reply by 24th April, 2018. Rejoinder, if any, may be filed by 1.5.2018.

2. The appeal shall be confined only to the pleadings before the Tribunal whose orders are challenged. However, the appellant may with due notice to the respondents and with leave of this Bench urge additional grounds at the time of hearing. If the appellants have already raised any additional grounds at the time of filing this appeal, the appellants shall disclose the same by next date, in writing.

3. The parties may produce copies of petition/documents which are part of the record in Tribunal below, if and to the extent necessary to answer the grounds urged in the appeal. The appellants shall produce (unless already Company Appeal (AT) No.414 and 415 of 2017 produced) by next date, copies of all documents referred to and relied on by the Tribunal below in the impugned order.

4. If the parties have produced or want to produce any document which was not part of the records in the Tribunal below, the parties shall make a separate application stating the reasons for not producing it in the Tribunal below, and the necessity for its production in this appeal and seek leave of this Bench for producing and considering such additional documents.

5. After the pleadings are complete, the parties will produce "Bullet points of arguments to be made" not more than 2-3 pages making reference to page numbers in paper book. The Appellants should in Bullet Points refer to page numbers of documents referred to and relied on by the Tribunal below in the impugned orders. The bullet points be produced before the date of hearing.
