O R D E R

09.08.2018: Further heard learned counsel for Appellant. The arguments remained inconclusive.

It appears that in this Appeal the parties have marked different volumes giving different serial numbers. The learned counsel for both sides agree to give consecutive numbers to the different filings they have done.

The parties may give volume numbers in consecutive order on the basis of dates of filing/presentation. For example, the Appellant may endorse in red ink on the Appeal and its volumes filed as “A-Vol-1”, “A-Vol-2”, etc. and Respondents may serially mark the reply and documents filed as “R-Vol-1”, etc.

Counsel for Respondents states he is not available for health reasons for some time.

List the appeal for further hearing on 18th September, 2018.
