O R D E R

24.08.2018: Learned counsel for the Appellant states that she has added proper index to some volumes. The old ones are folded. Index of some other volumes are yet to be added. Counsel seeks time. She is permitted.

Learned counsel for the Respondents submits that with Diary No. 6027 an application for filling additional documents has been filed. He states that although additional documents are filed no reason has been given as to why the same were not filed in NCLT. He seeks time to file Reply. He may file the same.

The Learned counsel for Appellant needs to give detailed index for even Diary no. 6027. She states that with Diary No. 6027 the copies of documents filed are same which were earlier tendered as "Vol-13". In view of this statement, the volume marked as "Vol-13" need not be looked into. We will look into the application Diary No. 6027 with regard to the additional documents filed for the first time at the Appellate stage and whether the application is to be allowed or not to be allowed will be considered. The learned counsel for Respondents may file reply before next date.

List the Appeal for completing compliances on 11th September, 2018.
