IN THE MATTER OF:

N. Sankaranarayanan

... Appellant

Versus

and Ors.

... Respondents

Present: Shri Soumik Ghosal with Shri Gaurav Singh, Advocates for the Appellant.

O R D E R

17.11.2017 Heard the learned counsel for the appellant. In the appeal-memo, 26 Respondents have been arrayed. There is no reason why the National Company Law Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as 'NCLT') has been added as Respondent No. 26. Counsel for Appellant agrees and Respondent No. 26 is deleted.

Learned counsel for the appellant states that Respondent No. 5, Mr. Justice K.P. Sivasubramaniam, is a retired Judge who is a shareholder in the company. Learned counsel for the appellant is unable to show how the document at Page 25A, which is Annexure-1, could be read to be an order dated 20th July, 2017.

Learned counsel for the appellant is permitted to file first page of the certified copy of the order which he says remained to be filed when Page 25A was submitted.

There are also errors in the names of the respondents when cross-checked with Page 238 where there is a document claiming to be Company Application No. 115 of 2017. Learned counsel seeks liberty and is permitted to file corrected memo of parties by today itself.

List the matter on 20th November, 2017.
