21.11.2017 Heard the Company Secretary appearing on behalf of the appellants and learned counsel for the Registrar of Companies (ROC). In some of these appeals, in the impugned orders it is mentioned that with the compounding applications, affidavits making wrong submissions were filed. Copy of the applications for compounding with supported affidavits have not been filed. The Company Secretary appearing on behalf of the appellants wants time to file the same.

In these appeals, the appellants shall file copy of the applications which were filed for compounding along with affidavits as they were filed below. The documents be filed before the next date furnishing copy of the same to the learned counsel for the ROC.

List the matters on 4th December, 2017 for hearing the appeals.
